

COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN AND FOR THE

FOURTH APPELLATE DISTRICT, DIVISION TWO

COURT OF APPEAL FOURTH DISTRICT

MISCELLANEOUS ORDER 11-6

ORAL ARGUMENT LIMITED TO 15 MINUTES

THE COURT:

Since the tentative opinion focuses oral argument, no more than 15 minutes of oral argument is allowed for each side, except for good cause. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.256(c).) The court is not unalterably bound by the tentative opinion, will thoughtfully consider all oral arguments made, and is willing to amend or discard the tentative opinion if counsel's arguments persuade the court that the tentative opinion is incorrect in any way. (See People v. Pena (2004) 32 Cal.4th 389, 399-400.)

Counsel may request additional time by serving and filing a letter application with the clerk of this court on or before 15 days after the date of mailing of the formal calendar, which notifies counsel when oral argument is set. Good cause for additional time is shown when the issues counsel still contests after reviewing the tentative opinion are more numerous or complex, or both, than in most orally argued cases.

The order is effective on the date of its filing and remains effective unless and until the order is vacated or superseded by an order of this court.
